Enjoy Scotland's outdoors responsibly

Everyone has the right to be on most land and inland water providing they act responsibly. Your access rights and responsibilities are explained fully in the Scottish Outdoor Access Code.

Whether you're in the outdoors or managing the outdoors, the key things are to:

- take responsibility for your own actions
- respect the interests of other people
- care for the environment.

On the trail of the ancient pines

The Woodland Trail winds through the pinewood for about 1 1/2 kms, whilst the Mountain Trail leaves the pinewood and climbs the hillside. Walking the whole 6 1/2 kms trail takes three or four hours, and stout footwear is recommended. But a trek along even a small part of it can be fun.

Buzzards, golden eagles and ravens can be spotted on the Trail and you may even be lucky enough to see pine martens and wildcats.

For visitors who would like to find out more about Beinn Eighe, there's a visitor centre open from Easter to October just outside Kinlochewe, and three all-ability trails that are open all year.

Air lorg nan seann chraobh ghiuthais

Tha Slighe na Coille a' lùbadh an àirde agus air ais mu 1 1/2 chilemeatair tron choille ghiuthais, agus tha Slighe a' Mhonaidh a' fàgail na coille agus a' dìreadh na beinne. Bheir neach trì no ceithir a dh'uairean a thide a' coiseachd nan 6 1/2 chilemeatair air fad, agus feumar caisbheart làidir is àiteachan cas innte. Ach tha pailteas spòrs an lùib fiù 's earrann bheag dhith a choisèachd.

'S dòcha gum faic sibh, clamhan, iolair bhuidhe no fitheach air an t-slighe agus mu tha sibh uabhasach fortanach 's docha gum faic sibh taghain no cait fhiadhaich.

Mu tha sibh ag iarraidh barrachd fhaighinn a-mach mu Bheinn Eighe tha ionad an luchd-tadhail fosgailte eadar a' Chàisg agus an Dàmhair ach tha na trì slighean fosgailte fad na bliadhna.
